The Amazing Secrets to ShareCash.org

Are you ready to become the single most earning user of ShareCash.org? Here's a secret: You will after you've read this free report. I've left out any fluff and filler, I expect you know your stuff so don't expect long stories about nothing.

Be aware of this important issue I am going to tell you now. Earning money with ShareCash is not about luck. Erase it from your system now. Here's the truth: The single most money earning user makes his money by sharing child porn. You didn't know this and you aren't supposed to know this. If you think I mean the person who is number one according to ShareCash, you're wrong. He has been removed from the list because of legal issues. Yet, ShareCash doesn't seem to care. In their ToS they also tell you not to share copyrighted material, yet everyone does it, why doesn't sharecash do anything about it?

Here's the truth and nothing more than the truth: Warez and Porn are a profitable business. If ShareCash would forbid this they would loose half of their income, if not more. The reason they have to state this is because of legal reasons. In case they get sued they can lay the fault with somebody else.

Ok that was the theory we are now going for the real work.

1. Earning money through Warez

As I said above warez pays. So what are you going to do now? Exactly, visit your favorite warez forum and check what's hot now. It might be windows 7, just check it for yourself. It's important however that the file you're going to upload is not bigger than 200 mb. Why? Because filling out surveys is quite a burden for a lot of people. And it happens to be that the file limit is 200 mb. Anything over 200 mb needs to be split which means filling out an extra survey.

Ok you're now going to look for a description and image of the product you've chosen. Done? Great. Go to Blogger make a blog about the stuff you're sharing. Ok now go to google hot trends. Look for the hottest trend. Make a blog about that particular subject, bear seo in mind. Make sure the link to your 'money blog' is clearly visible when reading the news article about the subject.

If you're finished doing exactly that, submit both your money blog and traffic blog to a handful of web 2.0 sites. Google needs to crawl your content and needs to put you on top. As a result you will see a huge increase in traffic and downloads.

2. Going green with white! –Porn-

Apart from warez porn pays too. So what we are going to do is upload some porn passwords: Go to 4chan.org, look for the random section. There you'll see someone advertising about porn passwords for sure. Download the passwords, rehash them a bit, because you don't want to have references of a site called something like: Uniquepornpasswords.com while your site is: hardcorepornpasswords.com (don't know whether those domains exist...)

Now you're going to advertise your stuff around the web. Go to some warez forums and make forum posts with compelling titles. You have to attract attention to attract downloads, remember that. Of course you're not going to talk about how your cat named Pete just got ran over by a bloody truck.

No, you're going to tell them you have a blog about something that's pretty cool stuff right now, what about porn passwords, after all that's what you have uploaded, right? You could also link to your weblog with daily free rapidshare premium accounts while you're basically sharing fake nonsense. Just jot down a few fake rapidshare accounts and when people write stuff like: "Omgz, doesn't worx" you tell them they are too late and have to wait for tomorrow. Or you could give them another file to download, and disappoint them again. It doesn't matter, you're not here to think about others. You're here to think about yourself. The top earner I mentioned above, the one who shares kiddie porn, doesn't think about the harmed kids too right? He thinks about himself, and nobody else than himself either.

3. Sharing is foruming. Come up with a forum and cash in.

There are currently no forums around that are specially designed for the promotion of sharecash links, so why don't you do it yourself? If you don't have the money to buy a domain name and warez-proof hosting then why don't you come up with a blogspot? I have mine too right here: <http://www.clickbankforfree.blogspot.com> take a look if you want to and download a few files in the progress.

4. Torrent of money.

If you know where to download compelling content then it is a good idea to share your stuff on torrent sites. Preferably public trackers, as private trackers have mostly too much rules and require you to separately make a torrent for each and every file while public ones mainly don't care whether the file has multiple trackers spread over multiple networks.

You could either go for a read me file mentioning your sharecash blog or you could go for uploading password protected files and in order for downloaders to unlock your content have them download your sharecash file. If your content is great I know for sure they'll take the plunge and download the password. Especially when they've just been downloading several GB.

5. Remote Uploading:

If you don't feel like downloading and uploading over and over again think about remote uploading files from rapidshare, megaupload and whatever, amazing/stunning-upload site out there on the web. Any well informed person would say: "What the (&^%$#@!~!@#$%&((%$? are you talking about? You can't yet do this" That's correct but soon you can so do it... for duck's sake.

Ok that's it for now remember to visit the following link: Click here

Faq:

Q: It was crap, I want my money back.

A: If you've paid even one cent for this. I laugh at you. If you find this crap. Then it either means you're making millions through sharecash, which you are not. Or you're a PTC fanatic. Go back to your friends.... now...

Q: You're a jerk.

A: Thanks.
